JUNIOR LEAGUE OF CHARLOTTESVILLE TO HOST VIRTUAL WOMEN'S SUMMIT

Monthly webinars March through May

Charlottesville, VA — The Junior League of Charlottesville will be hosting its first virtual Women's Summit this spring. The entire webinar series is aligned with the theme of Empowering Women, part of the Junior League of Charlottesville's Mission.

"We are thrilled to host our first Women's Summit to the local community virtually," said Christina Weiss, Membership Vice President for the Junior League of Charlottesville. "We hope to grow this event with the community year after year."

The first webinar will be on Tuesday, March 23 at 6 PM ET to highlight "Leadership in Times of Change" by Vicki Clark. Based in Memphis, Tennessee, Vicki Clark has devoted the past 30 years of her career to building capacity of organizations and individuals; inspiring community and business leaders to take action. She loves people and shows up in the world as a learner and a servant leader. She is known for her work in the specialty areas of leadership development, inclusion and diversity, equity, inclusion, antiracism assessment, training and facilitation, board development, strategic planning, volunteer resource development and effective communication.

On April 22, a financial panel will address "Female Financial Empowerment: Build it, Use it, Protect it." For May, the focus will be on making a career pivot. Tickets to each event will be $5 each or $10 to attend all three. More details will be announced in the near future.
